ESCAPE CUT OFF.

One Hundred Persons Penned in a Burning Building.

SEVERAL SERIOUSLY INJURED BY JUMPING TO THE GROUND.

After Nearly Half an Hour's Delay the Others are Rescued From Perilous Positions on Balconies and Window Sills By the Fire Department—List of the Injured.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 21.—Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock fire broke out in the basement of the four story general office of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad in this city. The flames passed through the single hatchway located in the central part of the building, and before warning could be given, the halls were filled with smoke.

Thus the 150 employees on the first, second and third floors were cut off from any avenue of escape. It was twenty minutes before ropes and ladders arrived, and by that time the fire had made such progress that the employees were driven out on the balconies and window sills. All those in the upper stories escaped without injury, except two of them, who became frightened and jumped to the ground before help arrived.

The following were thus injured:

Fred. Norrisheimer, messenger boy, badly injured.

Fred. Peterson, telegraph operator, skull fractured.

William Jones, badly bruised.

A. C. Race, engineer's office, leg broken.

O. W. Johnson, severely bruised.

J. H. Beck, telegraph operator, burned.

Fred. Sticker, burned.

The fire started in the paper room in the basement. Loss $30,000, fully covered by insurance.

NAVAL OFFICERS EXCITED

Because of the Recent Alterations in the Cruiser Chicago.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The younger officers of the navy who are obliged to live in the staterooms are considerably excited over the recent alterations in the steel cruiser Chicago, now repairing at the navy yard, New York. The quarters on the spar deck, originally intended for four ward-room officers, has been taken to provide bathrooms for the admiral and captain, pantries and offices. This necessitates the officers to go below in the wardroom, which has been enlarged at the expense of the starboard stateroom.

As originally built the stateroom had 160 cubic feet per man for the fifteen officers who had to live there, but as now fitted they are cut down to 93.3 cubic feet. The space in the ward room is planned for eighteen officers, and to each of these is assigned 615 cubic feet, of 6.59 times as much room as is given a stateroom officer. This will necessarily oblige a number of these young naval heroes to "live in the air," and this prospect, especially to the ensigns and other officers of that grade, is particularly pleasing.

The space required by law for a stateroom passenger on an emigrant ship is one hun-dered cubic feet, and an American naval officer, living in the stateroom, has less room than a stateroom passenger on an ocean steamer.

In this small space he is obliged by the regulations to stow his entire outfit for three years, and for that period it is to all intents and purposes his home.

On the Pacific steamers, running to San Francisco, the Chinaman is allowed 128 cubic feet, but in this new modern man-of-war, supposed to have all the comforts and conveniences of the present day, the poor stateroom officer is cramped into less space than is allowed an ordinary emigrant or

Chinaman coming to this country.

Election Bet Decided by Law.

teresting election bet. Last summer Minor

THE IMMIGRATION COMMITTEE

Reports a Bill to the House as a Result of Its Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The Ford immigration committee has reported to the house as a result of the investigation of the committee last summer a bill prohibiting the admittance into the United States of idiots, paupers, those who have been convicted of infamous crime or misdemeanor or involving moral turpitude, persons affected with loathsome or contagious diseases or those coming under contract to work in this country, except university professors or ministers.

The penalty for the person violating this provision or assisting to violate it, is a fine of $1,000 on conviction within two years.
No vessel is to bring over more than one passenger to every five registered tons, computing two children between one and eight as one person. Penalty for the violation of this provision $500 fine for each excess passenger.

The vessel bringing an emigrant is made responsible for a head tax of $5, which each is required to pay, agents of foreign governments excepted.

Intending emigrants are to prove good character three months prior to embarkation before a United States consul who is to receive no fee for certificate. This certificate is only presumptive evidence. It is made obligatory on common carriers to notify United States officials before landing of the number of aliens on board.

The secretary of the treasury is given power to carry out the provisions of the act, and circuit and district courts are given jurisdiction of cases under it.

SHOT HER LOVER

Because He Would Not Cease His Attentions When Told to Do So.

WATSON, Ind., Jan. 21.—This town, on the Ohio & Mississippi road, eight miles from Jeffersonville, was much excited Friday night by a shooting affair, in which one of the belles of the village defended her affections with a pistol.

John Alcott, a prominent young man of the place, employed at the Queen City cement mill, has long been an admirer of Miss Marie Bain, Watson's prettiest girl, and the daughter of a wealthy citizen. Friday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock Alcott and Miss Bain were seen talking at the gate in front of the girl's home.

Not the least excitement was observed in their manner and people passed them with knowing shakes of the head, significant of their belief in a coming wedding. Suddenly a passer-by saw the girl draw a pistol from under her cloak and fire directly at Alcott's face. The bullet entered under the left eye, was deflected downward and came out of the back of his neck. He fell to the pavement, and the girl, as if satisfied, turned and coolly walked into the house.

The wounded man was taken home and lies in a very critical condition. The girl, when asked for the cause of her murderous effort, said that she had dismissed Alcott some time ago and order him to cease his attentions; he still annoyed her with his ardent devotion, and she shot him as the only way to stop him. She was arrested, but immediately released on bail.

PRELIMINARIES

For the Invasion of the Oklahoma Territory Progressing Favorably.

WICHITA, KAN., Jan. 21.—Maj. Lillie, "Pawnee Bill," stated Friday that the preliminaries for the Oklahoma invasion were progressing favorably, and that he would cross the line of the territory February 1. Between 500 and 1,000 people in wagons and on horseback will leave this city on the 25th to be joined at points along the line of march by others. It is expected that the number will be 5,000 when the line of the territory is reached. Many who are not members of the colony will take advantage of the crowd to get into Oklahoma. Besides these are the colonies from the east and south.

When asked: "What can the troops do?"

Maj. Lillie replied: "Nothing, they can't shoot because the offense will only be tresspassing. They can only arrest the trespasser and carry him to a trial point. They cannot compel a man to walk after arrest and must carry him away. Now, the interesting point is, how a few soldiers are going to arrest and carry away several thousand men?"

CABINET RUMORS.

Colonel Buck and Andrew Carnegie Said to Have Been Offered Portfolios.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The Sun's Indianapolis special says: It is stated to-night on good authority that Col. Alfred Buck, of Georgia, had received an offer of a place in the cabinet, or at least, that it was intimated to him that such an offer would be made.

Carnegie.

WOLVERHAMPTON, England, Jan. 21.—The Evening Express, whose proprietor is a close friend of Andrew Carnegie, says that a cablegram from New York announces that

Harrison has offered Carnegie the interior secretaryship.

No Faith in Its Checks.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 21.—The latest purchase

by the Standard Oil company is that of 185 acres from M. S. Priest, of Liberty township, Wood county. The price was $41,000. The funny thing connected with the transaction was that Priest refused to accept the Standard's check for the amount, and insisted upon being paid the whole sum in currency.

When it was explained that it would perhaps be difficult to get that amount of currency here on a moment's notice, and that it would also be somewhat risky for him to carry so large a sum home with him, he finally compromised by taking part currency and part drafts issued by banks on New York.

Cremated in His House.

BERRIER SPRINGS, Mich., Jan. 21.—Early

Friday morning the residence of Joel W.

Niles caught fire. Four people were in the building, Niles, George Lathrop and his wife and a child. The three latter were saved, but Niles perished in the flames. He had been in the habit of smoking in bed at night and it is thought the fire caught from his pipe.

Under the Ban.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—A circular from Archbishop Corrigan will be read in all the Catholic churches, placing all followers of Dr. McGlynn under the ban. Absolution will be denied to all attendants upon anti-poverty meetings.

Other Foreign News Notes.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The mail from Suakin brings dispatches from Gen. Grenfell, among which is an absolutely authentic account of the last hours of Gen. Gordon, the hero of Khartoum. The account is furnished by Demetrio Georgio, a Greek, who recently arrived at Suakin from Khartoum. Geo-rgio was present at the capture and sack of Khartoum. Here is his story as told to Gen.

Grenfell:

"I was at Khartoum the night it was taken. The Nile had gone back so that a part of the city was open. Gordon did not construct fresh trenches and ramparts, because he thought there were sufficient troops to defend the city. There were three thousand, I think. The gaps and all round about were held by a large force under Farig

Pasha. That night Farig moved his troops, especially the blacks, from the gaps, saying the soldiers were wanted on the other side.

Gordon had perfect confidence in Farig.

"The attack took place at two points. At the largest gap there was no resistance. If the British army or even a few of them had arrived even an hour before the attack took place, Khartoum would not have been taken,

and Gordon's troops would have fought to the last. Farig had sent word to the mahdi.

"Unless you attack to-night all is lost." In that night all was blood and flames. The city had passed over from the command of Gordon to the mahdi. It was a dreadful night. I shall remember it to my dying day.

The air echoed with horrible shrieks, yells, lamentations and wallings, and smelt of blood.

"I had two Mahdist uniforms given me by an Arab friend. One I gave to a friend, putting on the other myself.

It was nearing daybreak when I took my friend to my house. Some Arabs rushed in telling me I ought to go to the government house at once. I asked why. They replied,

"All the great officers of the mahdi have

MONDAY EVE., JAN. 21, 1889.

A BILL is pending in the Ohio Legislature to permit the Commissioners of Brown County to improve, enlarge and repair the court house at Georgetown; also to permit the county to go in debt for the purpose of having public records lost by the recent fire restored.

THE members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union manifest a zeal that would be commendable in any cause. The monster petition presented to Congress is evidence of this zeal. It contained the names of 14,174,734 subscribers asking for some temperance legislation. It is very doubtful whether their work will meet with any attention from Congress. Their petition will go the way of most others.

"NICHOLAS COUNTY Getting Ready to Elect a Republican Representative in August." Such were the head lines of a letter from Carlisle published recently in the Lexington Leader. Evidently the author of the letter, or the getter-up of the head lines, doesn't know even a little about the time-tried, true-blue Democrats of Nicholas. The Republicans stand but little better chance up there than a snow-ball would in a certain place said to be very hot.

THE Government's internal revenue collections for the first six months of the present fiscal year were over $63,000,000, an increase of about $1,000,000 compared with the collections for the corresponding period the previous year. If the tobacco tax is repealed at the present term of Congress, which is somewhat probable, the collections hereafter will not run up into millions quite so fast. But it is better for the Government to collect this vast sum from the luxuries named than from the necessities of life.

THE Glasgow Times thinks Colonel Matt Adams will be the next Governor of Kentucky. It says he was "a gallant Union soldier and model Congressman, and is a brainy, brilliant, hardworking Democrat," all of which is conceded. "Little Matt" is without a doubt an excellent man for the position and would fill it with honor, but there's Hager, Harris, Owens, Bryan and others who are all splendid fellows and who are frequently named for the place. The quartette last named, like Colonel Adams, are all "brainy, brilliant and hard-working Democrats."

THE people of Kentucky must not forget that another vote will be taken next August on the question of calling a constitutional convention. The Frankfort Capital says:

Should the vote be favorable to calling the convention, the next General Assembly will provide for the election of delegates to such convention. It, however, the vote is unfavorable, all that has been done goes for naught, and the ground already gained will have to be given over again. It is important that those favoring a revision of the present constitution of Kentucky should be impressed by the fact that every voter not casting his vote in favor of calling the convention is counted against the proposition. There is no doubt that the assembling of a convention at an early day to consider the propriety of amending the constitution of Kentucky would much promote the general welfare of the State.

This is an important question, and one that should not be lost sight of.

OBJECTIONS ANSWERED.

Who Are to Be Managers of the Proposed Manufacturing Association.

We have heard of some complaint urged against the proposed manufacturing association by a few individuals because some of the names prominent in the movement did not suit, and therefore these few individuals are disposed to hold back about subscribing.

Please note right here that it is not known yet who will be the managers. The charter provides that after the stock is subscribed a meeting shall be held of the subscribers and then, and not until then, will the question be settled as to who will be the "Board of Control." Every person subscribing a share is entitled to a vote, and for each share a vote, so that all stand on the same footing, and the managers will be chosen by the subscribers.

The present organization is simply for the convenience and purpose of raising the money, and not until the money is raised can the question be determined as to the officers. The people who put the money up ought to have the right to say who will control the association and whoever a majority want will be elected.

The charter provides for a Board of Control of twenty-four and two-thirds of this number, or sixteen men, have to determine, where an investment is to be made.

Look into it as carefully as you can and you will find all the points are well guarded and the interests of all well protected in this charter.

GOING TO THE FRONT.

Sons of a Former Maysvillian Now Prominent in Railway Circles at St. Joe.

Two of the sons of Dr. Richard Berry, formerly of Maysville, have won their way to prominent positions in railway circles at St. Joseph, Mo.

In 1876, Charles Rosser Berry, then but eleven years old, was only a messenger boy in the Western Union Telegraph office at that place. The Daily Herald says: "This position he held until March of 1877, when he secured a position as telegraph operator for the same company, having spent his leisure moments when a messenger boy in learning telegraphy. In April, 1879, Mr. Berry was made night operator at the round house of the K. C., St. J. & C. B. R. R. company, owing this position to Mr. G. M. Hohl, at present the Superintendent of the line, then its Superintendent of Telegraph and Chief Train Dispatcher, who had met the subject of this sketch, then a boy of sixteen, and became convinced he had a future before him. The position given him by Mr. Hohl marked Mr. Berry's beginning in the railroad business. He held the position of night operator until January, 1880, when the company promoted him and he was made day operator at the round house, performing in addition to his regular duties those of the trainmaster. Another advancement came in September, 1882, when the St. Joseph & Des Moines Railway Company made him its Train Dispatcher, and this position he held until August, 1883. In 1883 the road was made standard gauge by the C., B. & Q. system, which had purchased it, and the Train Dispatcher's office was moved to Ottumwa, Ia. Mr. Berry was then put into the freight department, and in August, 1883, was made Cashier in the local freight office of the C., B. & Q. railway. This position he held until December 31, 1885, when he was offered the position of Cashier for the C., R. I. & P. railway in St. Joseph, and he left his last place to become the agent for the C., St. P. & K. C. railway last September 1. This in brief is the history of one of the youngest and most successful railroad men St. Joseph has produced. What he is to-day he owes entirely to his own efforts. From a position most obscure at the age of 11 he has worked himself up by slow degrees through the various departments of the business until he is now the local representative of one of the most influential corporations in the West. He has no one to thank but himself, and his steady rise has been a source of infinite gratification to his multitude of friends in social circles and in the business world.

The other brother referred to is Thomas J. Berry. He is thirty years old, and was recently married. The Daily Herald says: "He worked on the Herald from 1872 to 1879, and the following year entered railroad business as clerk with J. F. Barnard, General Superintendent of the K. C., St. & C. B. In August, 1881, he went into the freight offices of the same road, where he remained until 1887. On April 1, 1887, he was assistant to City Ticket Agent Jerry Sullivan and on the latter's resignation June 1, was made agent. Mr. Berry has a host of friends in St. Joseph and has advanced step by step through his own efforts."

These gentlemen have quite a number of relatives in this city and vicinity. Mrs. Keith Berry of West Second street being their aunt, and all will be gratified to learn of the bright future that seems in store for them.

The Hungarian Quartette.

The theater-going people of Maysville will soon have an opportunity of hearing one of the most novel attractions of foreign musicians before the public. The Kanya Geza Hungarian Gypsy Quartette is "the latest musical novelty" on the road. In speaking of the band, the Boston Globe says: "Three swarthy, good-looking men, dressed in a brilliant red uniform, two with violins, one with a cello, a tall, prepossessing woman with a positive genius for playing the piano—these people made Music Hall shake with applause. It was an event as successful as it was pleasant. Like all such bands they play from memory; but such music no band in this country can duplicate. Kanya Geza, their leader, is a very wizard with the violin. To hear him play Remenyi's masterpiece, 'The Flying Swallows,' is to learn what effects it is possible to get with the violin.

"The charm of the playing of these people is that they play with their souls in their work, and all the tenderness, passion, and fire in their natures is expressed through their instruments. Herr Csillag's performance on the cello of Schubert's 'Serenade' was worthy of that great composition. Nothing so 'taking' in instrumental music has been heard in Boston."

The Quartette will appear at the opera house next Thursday night. Admission, 35, 50 and 75 cents. Reserved seat tickets at Taylor's.

Stock, Field and Farm.

The tobacco growers of Bracken County meet at Brooksville to-day to decide whether they will raise any crop this year.

The Home Journal says: "Tobacco planters should now, of all times, reduce acreage and produce the best quality. Where the soil is unfitted to do this it should not be attempted, even on a reduced acreage. If you can't shoot a turkey that everybody wants, don't shoot a buzzard that nobody will have."

A LIFE SENTENCE.

Result of the Trial of Ennis Barnes for the Murder of Steve Boyd.

Particulars of the Crime for Which He Has Been Convicted.

Guilty and punishment is fixed at confinement in the penitentiary for the rest of his life.

Such is the substance of the jury's verdict in the case of Ennis Barnes, charged with the murder of Steve Boyd.

Barnes' trial was commenced in the Circuit Court last Thursday.

The prosecution was represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Sallee, County Attorney Newell and Messrs. Thomas R. Phister and George R. Gill, while Messrs. L. W. Galbraith and A. A. Wadsworth appeared for the accused.

The evidence was all in Friday afternoon, and the arguments were begun. Mr. A. A. Wadsworth for the defense and Mr. Thomas R. Phister for the prosecution spoke that evening. Saturday morning Mr. Galbraith made the final argument for Barnes, and County Attorney Newell made the closing speech for the Commonwealth. The verdict was reported sometime during the afternoon. Several of the jurymen at first favored fixing the penalty at death.

The dead body of Steve Boyd was found under the iron viaduct near the corner of Front and Wall streets early on the morning of Thursday, the 8th of last November. His head lay in a pool of clotted blood. Investigation showed that he had been shot. The bullet—one of a large caliber—had entered below the right ear and ranging upward passed entirely through, coming out on the left side of the face, a little in front of the ear. The wound was a ghastly one, and death had probably followed almost instantly. Boyd was well known about town, and was considered a sort of half-witted, inoffensive fellow. Parties living on West Front street had heard the shot but paid but little attention to it. The officers soon had a clue to the murderer. Deputies Fisher and Dawson learned that Boyd and Barnes had quarreled at Harriet Banyon's house in "Snag alley" the night of the killing. Captain Hefflin arrested Barnes and Louis Miller, another negro, soon after the finding of the dead body. He had seen them with Boyd shortly before the shooting took place. On the evening of the 8th, Miller confessed and told all about the murder. His story was that the three had gone to Harriet Banyon's the night in question. While there Boyd, who was considerably intoxicated, began abusing the woman. Barnes took up for her and a difficulty ensued. The trouble was soon settled, however, and the men all left and came down town. On West Front street Barnes accused Boyd of having sold out to the Democrats the day of the election and the quarrel was renewed. The two clinched. Boyd soon cried, "Let go," when Barnes replied, "D—n it; I'll let go." The shot followed and Boyd staggered away in the agonies of death.

Barnes' home is at Washington, where he has been a well-known character for years. He figured as a leader in the election riot a few years since.

THE wool manufacturers and carpet makers are reported as saying they prefer "free wool" to the duty on that article proposed in the Republican Senate tariff bill. These manufacturers seem to be getting their eyes open at last.

ELDER G. L. SURBER, State evangelist, preached two fine discourses in the Christian Church yesterday, and at the conclusion of the morning sermon raised $102 for State missions. This sum was increased to-day to over $110. Considering the rainy day, and hence that not so many were present as usual, the collection was a good one.

THE Boyd Lumber Company of Ripley are to receive $3,250 each for the ten Government barges to be built for the Mississippi River Commission. They are to be built frame hull and scow bow. It is said that there is 62,000 feet of timber in each barge, worth $1,900.

TRAGEDY IN LEWIS.

A Young Man Shot Dead While Robbing Wilson's Store Near Sand Hill.

He Was Hitherto Well Thought of. Excitement Over the Lamentable Affair.

The people living in the vicinity of Wilson's store, near Wilson's Landing, opposite Manchester, O., are terribly wrought up over a tragedy that occurred there Saturday night.

A gentleman living near the scene was in town yesterday and brought particulars of the affair.

The store is owned by James G. Wilson, but his cousin, George T. McCormack, has been in charge of it for some time. Several weeks ago McCormack began missing small articles of goods, and now and then small amounts of money would disappear. Thorough investigation failed to throw any light on the subject, and McCormack was at a loss to account for the loss of the property and money in his charge. His worry was increased by the hints thrown out by the neighbors that he knew more than he professed to know.

He determined to clear himself of any suspicions, and, the losses continuing, he set a watch to discover the robbers. This proved unsuccessful until last Saturday night. The store was closed at the usual hour, but McCormack instead of going to his home concealed himself in the second story of the building. He had armed himself with a double barrel gun, loaded with heavy shot. Shortly before midnight he heard a noise below and cautiously descended to the lower floor. As he reached the foot of the stairway he discovered by the dim light a man only a few feet away. He called to the party to throw up his hands, but the fellow responded with a shot from a pistol, the ball grazing McCormack's forehead and the powder burning his face. McCormack returned the fire, and the man fell to the floor, gasped once or twice and was dead. The heavy charge of shot had entered his breast, inflicting a ghastly wound.

The flash of the gun disclosed another fellow standing near by. McCormack turned his weapon on the man but the hammer refused to work, and he retreated up stairs, the robber at once making his escape. There was a third party on the outside who also got away.

Some of the neighbors were at once summoned. The dead man was found to be William Harrison. He still grasped a pistol in each hand, one of them with hammer drawn and ready for action, but one chamber being empty.

Harrison was about twenty-one years old, and belonged to a respectable family in the community. Excitement runs high in the neighborhood over his death under such circumstances. One of his companions has been arrested.

ONE of the principal and at the same time most flourishing wood-work establishments at Harbor Springs, Mich., is said to be a toothpick factory. An exchange says of the industry and of the process through which the wood is put: "White birch is exclusively used in the manufacture of the toothpicks, and about 7,500,000 of the little splinters are turned out daily. The logs are sawed up into bolts each twenty-eight inches in length, then thoroughly steamed and cut into long ribbons three inches in width, and these ribbons, eight or ten at a time, are run through the toothpick machinery, coming out at the other end, perfect pieces falling into one basket, the broken pieces and refuse falling into another. The picks are packed in boxes, 1,500 in a box, and are then put into cases, and finally into big boxes, ready for shipment to all parts of the world."

IMPROVEMENT

Noticeable in the Movement of General Trade.

BRADSTREET'S WEEKLY REPORT OF THE STATE OF TRADE.

Corn and Oats Higher, While Flour and Wheat is Lower—Failures for the Week.

—Thus Far There Has Been Thirty-Three Strikes This Year, Involving Nearly Seven Thousand Men.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Bradstreet's State of Trade says:

Ten out of fifteen telegraphic advices from large distributing centers report a noticeable improvement in the movement of the general trade. The Louisiana sugar and rice crops are practically marketed and country trade is quiet, owing to this being the planters' contracting season.

Receipts of cattle and hogs at western points are heavier and prices are lower, with weaker markets. Pork and lard respond to these conditions.

Corn and oats are fractionally higher, but flour, in sympathy with wheat, is five and ten cents lower. Coal is quiet and unchanged.

Fears that very unfavorable results will be shown by some unexpected railroad reports checks the other bullish elements in the speculative situation.

Bonds are strong and active, and investments are in good demand.

The industrial situation does not improve, but compares very favorably with January, 1888.

There have been thus far in January thirty-three strikes, involving 6,865 men, against sixty strikes involving 36,000 men (28,000 in the Reading strike) in 1888. Of the 6,865 strikers this month, 5,000 are accounted for by the coal miners strike in West Virginia and cigarmakers strike in New York city.

The increased production of iron furnaces has had its normal effects at this, a period of special dullness, that of driving off buyers who prefer to wait and see whether raw iron prices will not sag under the weight of accumulated stocks. Pig iron in all directions is weaker. Late contracts are 25 per cent. under the highest quotations of last autumn. Steel rails are tending from $28 to $27 per ton at eastern mills.

Dry goods are in steady but moderate demand at New York and Boston. Print cloths are one-sixteenth cent higher on good demand and very small stocks. Discounts are short, with talk of an advance general among manufacturers. Raw cotton is fairly active at an advance of one-sixteenth cent on the week.

Business failures number 358 in the United States this week, against 337 last week and 308 this week of last year.

Head Split Open With An Ax.

CARLEISLE, Ind., Jan. 21.—James Carrithers, Stephen Dugan, and several others were playing cards in an old ice house Thursday when trouble arose and Dugan got up and went out, saying he was going to get a gun to kill somebody. On returning he climbed to a window in the ice house and put his head in, when Carrithers, thinking he had come to out his threat split Dugan's head open with an ax, and then went out and tried to kill another one of the party. Carrithers was told to stand back—that he had already killed one man. Carrithers took one glance at his victim, and started to run and cannot be found.

Grain of Corn Causes Death.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 21.—A few days ago a little four-year-old boy of John Jenkins, of this city, was playing with corn, when he put some in his mouth and a grain became lodged in his windpipe. A physician was summoned at once, and after working for some time he had just succeeded in removing it and hopes of his recovery were entertained, when he died, suffering intensely. Blood is supposed to have passed into the lungs from the incision made by the surgeon.

$20,000 Missing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—It is stated that $20,000 belonging to various missions of which the late H. P. Marshall, cashier of the Seamen's bank was treasurer, are missing. Mr. Marshall's accounts with the bank were correct at the time that he dropped dead of heart disease, two months ago. He was seventy-four years old and belonged to a family of high standing, and there is much comment on the mystery attending the disappearance of the funds.

The Regulators Around Tipton.

TIPTON, Ind., Jan. 21.—The White-Caps have again made their appearance in this county. Friday they sent a notice to be printed in one of our local papers, and they warn all evil-doers to beware. About four months ago they took Omer Davis, who resides near here, from his home and flogged him unmercifully, but they have remained quiet until the issuance of Friday's notice.

COZADDALE, O., Jan. 21.—Albert Sears, eight years old, and a son of Thomas Sears, has eyes of the most peculiar kind. A LAKE ON FIRE.

Peculiar Phenomenon in Southern Indiana—The Community Excited.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Near New Decker, a village in southern Indiana, a small lake is burning and emitting a peculiar sulphuric odor. The community is excited, and those living near the lake are preparing to leave the place. The lake is about half a mile in circumference. The fire covers the eastern surface with a steady blaze six inches in height. No smoke is perceptible. Several theories are suggested, the most plausible of which is that a vein of oil near the surface has burst under the pond, and that the oil rose to the surface, where it was set on fire by a spark from a burning log heap, and that as the oil continues to rise it keeps burning upon the surface.

NEW YORK.—Money 2 per cent. Exchange steady; governments quiet.

Currency sixes, 119½ bid; four coupons, 127½ bid; four-and-a-half, 109 bid.

The stock market opened firm and during the first hour of business on a steady buying by London and commission houses, prices advanced ¼ to ¾ per cent., but this was more than lost before the close under a raid on Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe. That stock dropped rapidly and at the lowest point showed a decline of 2½ per cent. The rest of the list closed feverish and unsettled at a fractional decline. The sales for the day amounted to 104,106 shares.

My Poor Back!

That "poor back" is held responsible for more than its share of the sufferings of mankind. If your dog bites a man who kicks it, do you blame the dog? On the same principle the kidneys utter their protest against nervousness, impure blood, and resulting constipation. These force them to do extraordinary work in ridding the system of the poisons which are the result of effete matter retained in the blood. Then the sufferer says the back aches; the kidneys are diseased. "Not yet," but they will be removed. These are the causes of kidney troubles, and Paine's Celery Compound removes them quickly. With its tonic, purifying, and laxative effect, it also strengthens the weak kidneys, making it almost infallible in curing all diseases of the nerves and kidneys. If your hopes of cure have not been realized, try Paine's Celery Compound; it gives perfect health to all who complain of "their poor backs." Price $1.00.
